Rule-Adoption Process

To Hearing or

Final Rule

Rule Initiation Process

 Adopt federal rules State rules reviewed

every three years

 Legislative directive Response to public

Staff indicates need

petitions

Opportunity for Comments

- Stakeholders
- OR-OSHA

Publish Final Rule in Federal Register

Opportunity for Comments

- Stakeholders
- OR-OSHA staff

Notice of Proposal

- Filed with Secretary of State by the 15th of the month for printing in the Oregon Bulletin on the first of the month
- Allow at least 20 days for comment
- Notices sent to affected parties and legislators notice includes information on hearings, if scheduled

Coordinate

- Internal/external training
- Enforcement policy on compliance directives

Publish Proposed Rule in Federal Register

Federal Rule Adoption

- Risk
- Hazards

Research:

- Economic impact
- Technological feasibility

Advanced Notice of

Proposed Rulemaking

Proposed Rule (NPR)

(ANPR) and/or Notice of Small-business impact

Federal Process

Final Rule

To state plans — six months to adopt (as is) or equally effective

> State Process

Rule Adoption

Safety & Health Policy Group Rule recommendation made to and decided on by Core Team

Opportunity

Recommendation to

for Comments

OR-OSHA staff

State

Technical Section

- Staff review. Compare to existing rules and consensus standards
- Research technical feasibility
- Review fiscal impact of rule
- Advisory committee formed (internal and, usually, external)
- Weekly update to all OR-OSHA
- Place on project page of internal Web site. Tech Flash to all OR-OSHA