

A summary of Oregon OSHA rules that have periodic training requirements

Forest activities rules – Division 7

Rule	Periodic training required
Training 7/B 437-007-0140	Employees must have job safety and health training before their initial work assignments and before they are assigned new tasks, tools, equipment, machines, or vehicles.
Fire extinguishers 7/E 437-007-0410	Employees who use portable fire extinguishers must be trained annually how to use them and about the hazards involved in responding to fire emergencies.
Training 7/N 437-007-1325	Employees who are issued fire shelters must first receive instructions from a qualified person on how to use the shelters, and at least annually thereafter.