

June 3 & 4, 2019 • Pendleton Convention Center • Pendleton, Oregon

Dear Prospective Sponsor,

This is the 13th year for the Blue Mountain Occupational Safety & Health Conference! Last year was a big success! The conference will host the 4th annual forklift rodeo safety competition. Once again we are expecting more than 250 attendees and 18 exhibiting organizations from Northeast Oregon and Southeast Washington. The Blue Mountain Conference is an excellent way for employers and employees to learn how to improve the management of their safety and health programs.

Sponsorships and in-kind donations keep the cost of the conference affordable. The registration fee for the event is an affordable $85 per person (includes conference materials, mobile event app, and meals/breaks). We look forward to your sponsorship of the Blue Mountain Occupational Safety & Health Conference slated for June 3 & 4, 2019, in Pendleton, Oregon, at the Pendleton Convention Center.

Sponsorship information:

- All sponsors are recognized in the printed conference registration program mailed to 400 and emailed to 3,000 business people (with sponsorship received by March 1, 2019).
- All sponsors are recognized at the conference at the opening and during breaks.
- Sponsors of food events or conference sessions/speakers are recognized at that event.
- General sponsorships of $500 receive a complimentary conference registration and of $1,000 receive a complimentary exhibit booth OR two complimentary registrations.

Specific Event Sponsorships
