

June 16 & 17, 2026 • Pendleton Convention Center • Pendleton, Oregon

Dear Prospective Sponsor,

This is the 18th year for the Blue Mountain Occupational Safety & Health Conference! The last event in 2025 was a success! Once again we are expecting more than 250 attendees and 20 exhibiting organizations from northeast Oregon and southeast Washington. The Blue Mountain Conference is an excellent way for employers and employees to learn how to improve the management of their safety and health programs.

We would be grateful of your sponsorship of the Blue Mountain Occupational Safety & Health Conference slated for Tuesday and Wednesday, June 16 & 17, 2026, in Pendleton, Oregon, at the Pendleton Convention Center. Sponsorships and in-kind donations keep the cost of the conference affordable. The registration fee for the main conference day on Wednesday, June 17, is $130 per person (includes conference materials, mobile event app, Exhibit hall entry, and meals/breaks) with additional pre-conference workshops on Tuesday, June 16, for $60 per person. Again this year, the first event day (Tuesday) will feature sessions in Spanish.

Sponsorship information:

- All sponsors are recognized in the conference registration materials emailed to 6,900 business people (with sponsorship received by March 1, 2026).
- All sponsors are recognized at the conference in a scrolling PowerPoint and in the mobile event app.
- Sponsors of food events or conference sessions/speakers are recognized during that event.
- General sponsorships of $500 receive a complimentary conference registration and of $1,000 receive a complimentary exhibit booth OR two complimentary registrations.
