

Foundations of Safety Leadership Test Answer Key

Name _____ Date _____

1. Leadership can be defined as “influence”. T or F
2. Authority is the foundation of leadership. T or F
3. Strong leaders gain buy-in through strategic manipulation. T or F
4. Caring for others’ well-being helps safety leaders build trust. T or F
5. Character has minimal impact on one’s leadership ability. T or F
6. Supporting others’ demonstrates commitment to safety. T or F
7. All safety-related decisions should be made solely by a safety professional. T or F
8. Consensus decision-making is the most efficient method. T or F
9. Getting input from others before making a decision is an example of a delegated decision. T or F
10. To empower others for safety requires transfer of ownership of responsibility. T or F
11. Successfully empowering someone with a safety responsibility requires them to have an appropriate level of authority T or F
12. The first step in reinforcing safe behaviors is to approach the individual safely. T or F
13. When delivering STAR (Situation, Task, Action, Result) feedback, it is important to ask questions and get the employees’ feedback. T or F

Location City: _____

Score _____/13

(yellow)