The meeting was called to order at 9:05 a.m.

1. MINUTES OF THE FEBRUARY 4 MEETING AND ACTION ITEMS:

It was moved and seconded that the minutes be approved as submitted. The motion passed unanimously.

2. OLD BUSINESS:

Status of current rule review:

Barry Jones to look into when the Fall Protection Meeting will be in March 2004.

Mike Murphy brought up the issue of the 10' to power line subject matter that Stan Strickland had talked about in past meetings. This subject will be added to the next Construction Advisory Committee Agenda.

There are several legislative concepts from OR-OSHA on the table at this time. All three were described briefly by Barry Jones, OR-OSHA.

Topic for The Depot:

Ideas for The Depot: Fatality Rate and information on fatalities, Mike Murphy suggested an article that gives examples of how to avoid getting shocked by power tools that are exposed wet/damp environments. Murphy will put pen to paper and submit ideas to Ellis Brasch of OR-OSHA.

502 Committee:

Rocky Shampang, OR-OSHA, reported on the 502 Committee. He said that an article would be in the next 'OR-OSHA Construction Depot' quarterly on the purpose and goal of the 502 Committee.

Concrete Boom Trucks:

Frank Upham handed out packets on Safety Standards for Concrete Pumps for the committee to look at. Upham will meet with 2 concrete pumping companies and Dale Matlock of OR-OSHA, to discuss safety while working with boom trucks. Action: Upham will report on the response of the meeting at the next Construction Advisory Committee Meeting.

3. NEW BUSINESS:

Safe Economic Recovery:

The name has been changed from “Safe Economic Recovery,” to “Safe Jobs Smart Business Action Plan.” Action: Carry over to the next meeting.

Health and Safety Issues (global/current): Nothing to report.

Uniformity Issues: Nothing to report.

Open Forum:

John Killin, ABC, has accepted a position with another employer and will not be attending future meetings.

Dale Matlock, OR-OSHA Portland Field Office, has replaced Gary Camfield who recently retired.

Since there was no further business for the committee, the meeting was adjourned at 10:17 a.m.

The next meeting will be held April 7, 2004, at the L & I Building in Salem, Room B.
