Lessons Learned:

Kimberly Gamble- Gave a PowerPoint presentation on a hydro-mobile (a mast climbing work platform) collapse on a project.

Continuing Business:

Status of rule making –

- Rulemaking updates can be found at:
<http://www.cbs.state.or.us/osh/pdf/rules/2010development.pdf>.

Cranes and Derricks in Construction – Ron provided an update. The subcommittee has met multiple times. Ron will be putting together the text for submittal on November 15. Public hearings will be held in January and adoption will be effective February 9, 2011.

2011 Nominations:

After nominations were discussed, Dave Parsons was elected to serve as the Chair again. At the December meeting, there will be a white elephant gift exchange, similar to last year. Lotions and cigars are discouraged.

Roundtable: -

Dede Montgomery – Check out the CROET website for information and to register for the Fall Symposium.

Peg Munsell – Cranes & Derricks Fact Sheets on the Scope and timeline are almost completed and will be posted to the web (around the 8th). Feds have fact sheets on their site.

Trena VanDeHey – Federal OSHA has opened comments for the noise rule on what constitutes feasibility.

Tony Barsotti – Asked if training centers/3rd party apprenticeships/journeyman classes meet the definitions. The answer is yes but Employer to determine.
